THE CAMPAIGN.
No better evidence of the sincerity of the enthusiasm with which the nominations of Seymour and Blair were received by the Democracy of Memphis could be afforded than the disposition which has since manifested itself to organize for the contest and place the party in a condition for effective action when the time shall come. Associations are being formed in every ward of the city, and the example thus set is being imitated throughout the country districts.

A meeting to organize a club in the Second Ward will be held at the City Hall to-night.

The Young Men's Independent Democratic Club meets to-morrow night, and will be addressed by General Chalmers, Colonel J. B. Marshall and Colonel R. F. Looney.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at the engine house in the First Ward, last evening, to organize a club, of which Capt. J. E. Randall, was chosen temporary chairman and D. A. Brower, Esq., of the Avalanche, secretary. Messrs. E. L. Goldbaum, R. D. Baugh, Owen Dwyer, John Glancy and Michael McFadden were appointed a committee on permanent organization, and during their retirement the meeting was addressed in telling speeches by Messrs. Brower, Randall and Mageseney. Upon returning the committee made the following report on permanent organization, which was unanimously adopted:

President—John E. Randall.
Vice Presidents—Wm. Kehlo, John Glancy, Owen Dwyer.
Secretary—E. L. Goldbaum.
Assistant Secretary—Owen Daily.
Treasurer—Pat Haley.

The Chair appointed the following committees:

Finance—Ed. Brannon, John Curry, Wm. Kehlo, John Turner, Tim. Hickey.
On Procuring Speakers—John W. Taylor, James Dolan, J. H. Brown.
On Hall—Michael McFadden, Charles McFadden, Michael Maloney.
To Inform Central Club of Organization—John W. Taylor, Owen Dwyer, John Joyce.

The Club then adjourned.

A business meeting of the Young Men's Independent Seymour Club was held at the Adams street enginehouse, last evening, at which twelve new members were enrolled.

A constitution and by-laws were reported and adopted.

Dr. W. M. Chambers and Alderman Black were added to the list of Vice Presidents.

The President named Dr. W. M. Chambers, J. E. English and Alex. Monteith as a committee on enrollment in accordance with the provisions of the constitution adopted.

On motion of Mr. Boyle, the President appointed a committee of three on printing, naming P. D. Boyle, J. H. Thompson and R. F. Aratta as said committee.

The meeting was then addressed by Messrs. Orville Yerger, F. A. Tyler and Captain Merrin, of the Charleston (Mississippi) Tallahatchee—all of whom were listened to with marked interest and attention. The meeting adjourned to Monday evening next, at same time and place.

A large meeting of the citizens of the Seventh Ward was held at Ferguson's Hall last night to organize for the campaign.

L. D. McKissick, Esq., was appointed temporary chairman and Sidney Cook temporary secretary.

Messrs. John S. Kerr, W. L. Stewart, J. H. Hartley, G. A. Hanson and Wm. Harris were appointed a Committee on Permanent Organization, and during their retirement the meeting was eloquently addressed by Judge P. T. Scruggs, Colonel Edward Pickett, Jr., Mr. W. M. Randolph and General J. T. Sala.

The Committee, on returning, presented the following report on permanent organization, which was adopted without a dissenting voice:

President—L. D. McKissick.
Vice Presidents—W. L. Stewart, W. R. Hant, E. J. Pickett, Jr., J. B. Sharp, John E. Spicer, E. M. Apperson, John Ainslie, J. J. Rawlings, F. M. Mahan, A. L. Goff, H. G. Dent.
Secretary—Ben. H. Capers.
Assistant Secretary—Thomas Tarley.
Corresponding Secretary—Geo. J. Campbell.
Treasurer—Martin Kelly.
Executive Committee—J. H. Hartley, chairman; W. L. Stewart, J. B. Wolter, Louis Raja, Joe Behr, Ralph Wormly, Joe Bruce, —Ennis, J. H. Swan, Charles Stewart.

On Constitution and By-Laws—J. W. Wescott, chairman; J. A. Hollenbeck, P. McNally, H. J. Lynn, J. B. Boto.
Committee on Oration—Wm. Harris, J. J. Lovin, Jr., J. J. Jency, Dr. Fisher.

Mr. McKissick accepted the position of President in a speech forcible and eloquent.

A large meeting of the Democrats of the Tenth Ward was held at P. Tufel's last night, to organize a club in that ward. Col. R. F. Looney was called to the chair. A committee of five, appointed on permanent organization, reported as follows, the meeting unanimously adopting the report:

President R. F. Looney. Vice-Presidents, P. Fleming, Chas. Donan, Jr., Joe Tufel, A. Wright, J. W. Clapp. Recording Secretary, John Donovan. Corresponding Secretary, A. J. Hays. Treasurer, H. D. Bulkley.

On motion, the following committees were appointed:

On Procuring Hall—A. J. Hays, P. Fleming, P. Tufel.
On Rules and By-Laws—John Donovan, John W. Smith, R. F. Boone.

The meeting was addressed by J. W. Smith, John Donovan and other gentlemen.

On motion, the club adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, at eight o'clock, at J. Tufel's, South street.

THE CAMPAIGN.
No better evidence of the sincerity of the enthusiasm with which the nominations of Seymour and Blair were received by the Democracy of Memphis could be afforded than the disposition which has since manifested itself to organize for the contest and place the party in a condition for effective action when the time shall come. Associations are being formed in every ward of the city, and the example thus set is being imitated throughout the country districts.
